

Bent Bones
That Were Bent
By Pointed Shoes

Straight Bones
That Grew Straight
In Educator Shoes

POINTED shoes are what make all bent bones, corns, bunions, callouses, ingrowing nails, flat feet, fatigue, and all the other ills that human feet are heir to.

Get your whole family (men, women and children) into today's good-looking Educators today. See that Educator is branded on the sole. That name guarantees you the correct orthopedic shape which lets your feet grow in nature's intended.

RICE & HUTCHINS
EDUCATOR SHOE
REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.

FAIR & CO.
THE FAIR DEALERS

they will go under treatment of a specialist. Mrs. Barnett accompanied them as far as Madisonville.

Mr. Frank Foreman and wife, of Davisburg, Ky., have been summoned by telegram to the bedside of his grandfather, Mr. William Foreman, who was at the point of death at the hour of going to press.

Wanted—Reliable retail store in Hartford to take orders for cut flowers and potted plants. Funeral designs and wedding decorations a specialty. Address, PLEASANT VIEW GREENHOUSE, F. G. Wright, Mgr., Madisonville, Ky.

Mr. Will Rhoads, city, brought to The Herald office Saturday a sample of his Missouri Multiplier corn. Four large ears grow upon one stalk within a distance of less than two feet. Mr. Rhoads says the corn will average three large ears to the stalk and he grew 65 bushels to the acre.

There will be something great in store at Hartford College on Saturday night, December 4, when President James A. Burns, of Oneida, Ky., Oneida Institute, will deliver his noted lecture on Kentucky. It is full of pathos and soul-inspiring sentiments which the receptive mind will not soon forget. As a word-painter he is said to have few superiors and his lecture is highly praised wherever it is delivered. He has frequent calls for return engagements, which fact speaks highly of his ability to entertain.

Turkeys Wanted.

That we may get poultry on the eastern markets for the Christmas holidays, we will load at Dundee, Ky., Friday, December 10th, and at Hartford, Saturday, December 11, 1915. Will send out prices later. Please make inquiry by phone or otherwise, as you may fail to get a card. W. E. ELLIS & BRO., 4713 Hartford, Ky.

Mrs. Mary Ward Dead.

Mrs. Mary Ward died rather suddenly at her residence in the No-creek neighborhood at 3 o'clock last Monday morning of heart trouble. Her remains were interred in the family burying grounds yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The deceased, who was seventy-two years, one month and nine days old, had been a member of the Methodist church for more than half a century. Her husband, James Ward, died last March.

John Baughn Dead.

Mr. John Baughn died at his residence near Magan, this county, last Saturday morning. He was very feeble but took suddenly very ill about 1 o'clock Saturday morning. His remains were buried at the Sugar Grove burying grounds Sunday afternoon, after funeral services conducted by Rev. T. H. Metcalf. He had been a member of the Baptist church about 30 years and was 81 years, 6 months and 4 days old.

Geo. W. Maddox Dead.

Mr. Geo. W. Maddox died of heart trouble at his residence in the Washington neighborhood last Thursday night. His remains were interred in the Bell's Run cemetery Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The deceased was seventy-two years old and a good citizen.

Notice.

We will run our corn-crusher at our feed store on Wednesday and Saturday of each week. Will take 1-6 off for toll from good corn. No inferior corn accepted as toll. If you don't want to pay toll, we will charge 15c cash for the single hundred or 12 1/2 c. for 200 or more.

W. E. ELLIS & BRO.

Produce Merchants.

Specials For Friday and Saturday, November 26 and 27.

1-lb. Cocoa 25c
2-lbs. Evaporated Peaches 15c
Corn, Peas, Hominy, Kraut, Pumpkin and Tomatoes, 8c per can—2 for 15c
2 boxes Oatmeal 15c
1 box 30c Oatmeal with China 25c
1 bag Hen Feed $2.10
3 cans Salmon 25c
J. C. ILLER.

Special Notice.

Everybody who expects to occupy a seat in the Star Theater must pay the regular admission—10c. All children, unless an infant in arms are included in this rule, and must be provided with tickets before entering the main show room or they will be required to pay before the entertainment starts.

E. G. BARRASS, Mgr.

A Big Deal.

A big deal was pulled off here Monday. Mayor J. C. Iler traded his one-third interest in a large river bottom farm about two miles below town to Mr. T. H. Black for his half interest in their large grocery business and Mr. Black's half interest in what is known as the Bean building on same street. This makes Mr. Iler sole owner of the grocery business and the Bean building, while Mr. Black now owns a two-thirds interest in what is known as the Rial farm, crop and stock. The company had a fine crop, about 75 head of cattle and a lot of hogs. Mr. E. G. Barrass, Circuit Court Clerk, owns the other one-third interest.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

I will keep the sheriff's office open on each night until 8 o'clock from now until Tuesday night, November 30th inclusive. Those of Hartford and immediate vicinity will confer a favor by calling at my office at night to pay their taxes. This request is made so that those coming from a distance can be waited on with the least delay. By doing this you will confer a favor on both me and those from the country. Please remember that when the books are closed Tuesday night, November 30th, that we will, under the law, be compelled to collect the penalty from everyone who has not paid. So please call before Wednesday, December 1st, and pay your taxes and thereby avoid the penalty.

S. O. KEOWN,
Sheriff Ohio County.

Notice.

We are now handling Fresh Meats—Beef and Pork. Your patronage will be appreciated. Call or send in your orders and same shall have prompt attention. Home phone 69. O. T. O'BANNON, Hartford, Ky.

New Star Theater.

The Star Theater will give a show on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday nights of each week. Will open the doors at 7:30 and the show will begin promptly at 7:45 o'clock each evening.

You cannot afford to miss these shows, as we have one of the best and most up-to-date machines made. We also have the best screen on the market and it will not hurt your eyes to look at these pictures. We likewise have one of the best and most modernly equipped show houses outside of Louisville. We have spared neither time or money in equipping a real show house for the people of Hartford and vicinity. Your patronage will be appreciated.

E. G. BARRASS,
Mgr. Star Theater.

Stock Raisers—Notice.

We will ship stock from Beaver Dam next Monday, November 29. Those having marketable stock will please bring them in at once.

TAYLOR & BEAN.

Notice.

Those knowing themselves indebted to Iler & Black by account will please call and settle same at once, as we want to get all the partnership business closed up as speedily as possible, since I have purchased his interest in the grocery business and sold him my interest in the farm. Prompt attention to this will be appreciated.

J. C. ILLER.

Barrett—Foreman.

Mr. Rollie Foreman and Miss Ara Barrett, of Narrows, this county, were united in marriage at the residence of Mr. I. F. Bennett, Hartford, yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. B. W. Napier performing the ceremony. They left soon after the wedding to go to the groom's parents where they enjoyed a bounteous supper for them and the invited guests. The groom is a brother-in-law of Mr. Foster Bennett, of Hartford.

These are popular young people who have the best wishes of all for their future happiness.

To Our Friends and Patrons.

We desire to extend our appreciation to friends and patrons for the liberal patronage they have given us in the past and the retiring member of the firm bespeaks the same consideration for Mr. Iler in the future.

ILLER & BLACK.

Strayed Or Stolen.

One dark red cow, bush of tall off and the tips of horns sawed off; three years old last spring. Disappeared Sunday, 7th of November.

JESS HAMMONS,
McHenry, Ky.

Don't miss the land sale at Greenville, Ky., Nov. 29, 1915. The W. P. Iler 300-acre tract of bottom land will be sold on that day.

Football Fatality.

Leitchfield, Ky., Nov. 22.—Herschel Bruner, fourteen years old, son of Dr. D. C. Bruner, of Clarkston, this county, died last night from injuries received yesterday afternoon in a football game between the Leitchfield and Clarkston teams, played on the grounds of the latter. The injury occurred in a scrimmage when the knee of one of the layers struck young Bruner's head and it is said caused hemorrhage of the brain.

It is easy to fool a woman—if it wasn't, how would the men get married?

If You Love That Friend

As you should, you will get busy now and buy that Christmas present while you can get the best choice. Others are doing it. Only 27 more shopping days—think of it. You can save a lot of time, worry and money by coming here, where you will find the largest line of the finest Jewelry, Silverware, Toilet goods, Diamonds, Eastman Kodaks, and in fact the most up-to-date line of everything carried in a jewelry store in 30 miles square. We want you to notice quality and price this year. In buying we got better terms and prices than ever before, and want a chance to prove that our customers are going to get the benefit of it, which will be a token of appreciation of their patronage.

J. B. TAPPAN, Jeweler and Optician,
HARTFORD, KY.

MARRIAGE LICENSE.
Wilbur Faught, Equality, to Vera D. Everley, Equality.

Rollie Foreman, Narrows, to Ora E. Barrett, Narrows.

Eld. H. P. Brown Dead.

Eld. H. P. Brown died at his residence one mile west of McHenry, Monday night at 9:15 o'clock of paralysis. After funeral services conducted by at West Providence church yesterday afternoon, his remains were interred in the West Providence cemetery in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives.

Elder Brown was stricken last Monday while in the midst of a sermon at the West Providence church where he had just begun a series of meetings. He was taken to his home but gradually grew worse until he passed away.

The deceased, who was a well and favorably known Baptist minister, had charge of the following churches at the time of his demise, viz.: Mt. Carmel, Muhlenberg county; Smith-house and West Providence churches this county, having only last Sunday resigned his charge at Centertown. The deceased was about 54 years of age and had been in the ministry about half of this time. He leaves surviving a widow and three grown daughters—two married and one single. It can be truly said that a good christian man has been called to his final rest.

EASTVIEW.

Nov. 22.—A series of meetings will begin at Bell's Run church to night.

Messrs. Chester Larue and Ernest Norris, of Owensboro, spent from Sunday until Tuesday with friends in this vicinity.

Mr. James Stewart made a business trip to Owensboro to-day.

Mr. Desha Ralph, of Rockport, spent a few days with relatives here last week.

Mr. L. D. French and Mr. and Mrs. A. Stewart and son Ellis made a business trip to Owensboro to-day.

Black Leg Appears.

The dread cattle disease, black leg, which is prevalent in some sections of Kentucky is prevented, provided vaccine is injected before the animal becomes infected with the disease. The Kentucky Experiment station is furnishing vaccine and is doing great work in suppressing this disease. It is generally considered that semi-annual vaccination is sufficient. Stiffness and swelling under the skin, along the thigh, neck, flank or rump are signs of the disease.

Tragic Suicide.

Cincinnati, Nov. 22.—Seymour Durham, aged forty-six, janitor of the Plainville School, sat down today on the Pennsylvania railroad track near his home and let the "New York Flyer" kill him. It was his second attempt at self destruction within a month.

A Rabbit Town.

Siler City has the distinction of being the largest rabbit shipping center in the world, as the following figures for the shipments for the past five years will show: 1910, 19,671; 1911, 18,537; 1912, 26,060; 1913, 18,979; 1914, 18,059. Great is the Chitman rabbit!—[Siler City (N. C.) Grit.]

Judge Black, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, led the ticket in majorities but not in votes. Stanley received the largest vote of any candidate on the ticket but Judge Black's opponent, Judge Walker, fell far short of the Morrow vote, and will leave Black several thousand to the good.

HOPEWELL.
Nov. 22.—Mrs. Lizzie Shull has moved to Central City, where she will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. E. V. Bennett.

Messdames Will Chapman, Olla Bennett, Mack Hunley and daughter Miss Lillian, after a two-weeks visit to relatives and friends here, have returned home.

A horse kicked Mr. Tom Ford last Wednesday in the breast which caused a very painful but not serious wound.

Mrs. L. S. Engler left last week for Illinois, where she will spend a few months with her sons, Will and Tom Engler.

Mrs. Tom Ford and daughter Miss Mary spent last Wednesday and Thursday nights with Mrs. Rupert Taylor, of Wysox.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley, of Adair county, Ky., spent a few days with their daughter, Mrs. Aaron Scott, last week.

Mr. Billy Johnson has been getting along nicely but is not quite so well at this writing.

We have had so much rain that people have not gathered all of their corn out of the low bottoms and the water is going to get some of it, we fear.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick McDowell, of near Bennett's schoolhouse, Hartford, Route 2, spent Saturday night with Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark, Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Riley McDowell, of North Rockport, and left for home Monday.

Fine Tract of land for Sale.

If it is a fine tract of Green river bottom land you want, don't miss the sale of the W. P. Iler 300-acre tract of land to be sold by Master Commissioner E. E. Birkhead by public auction at Greenville, Ky., on November 29, 1915, about 1:00 o'clock, p. m.

This land is situated about one mile below Ceralvo on the Muhlenberg county side of Green river.

One hundred acres of this land is in a fine state of cultivation, and the remaining two hundred acres contains the finest body of timber to be found anywhere on Green river. This land will be sold on six and twelve months time, with approved security.

A girl's castle in the air is sometimes built of bricks of ice cream.

We Invite You

To drop in and see how neat and clean this store is kept.

You will find it a pleasure to shop here.

Clean Store, Clean Stock and Clean Prices

ILLER & BLACK,
HARTFORD, KY.